Raiders tie Brookville, 7-7

The Appomattox Raiders battled a powerful Brookville team to a 7-7 tie in varsity football action here Friday night.

Brookville, coming off a 50-0 victory over Liberty a week earlier, scored first in the Appomattox contest, on a first-quarter drive sustained by the running efforts of Bee Leon Watts.

Brookville had a second chance to score in the third quarter, and make their lead 14-0, when a tenacious Raider defense mounted a goal-line stand and halted a Brookville offensive within inches of the Appomattox goal.

The Raiders took over and pushed downfield to the Brookville 36, where they were forced to punt.

But Appomattox got the ball back three plays later following a fumble by Brookville's Watts, and on the next play Raider quarterback Kevin Ferguson fired a pass to receiver Ron Carter, who crashed through a Brookville defender for the Raiders' first and only touchdown.

Kicker Phil Agee made good on the point-after-touchdown attempt.

Brookville had one additional chance to score in the fourth quarter, but Raider Rodney Bryant blocked the Bees' 27-yard field goal attempt.

The Raiders, now with a 3-2-1 record, compiled 260 yards total offense against Brookville.

Included in this was 210 yards passing and 50 yards rushing.

Ferguson went 15 for 30 in the passing department, including the 26-yard touchdown strike to Carter.

Receiver Mark Kelso caught eight passes for 120 yards. Carter caught two passes, Jody Williams three and Alan Edmonds two.

Dennis Fleshman led Raider rushers with 50 yards on 14 carries.

The Raiders compiled 13 first downs in the game.

Brookville had 17 first downs, 271 yards rushing and 30 yards passing against the Raiders.

The Raiderettes continued to dominate in the third quarter, which ended with a 42-20 Appomattox advantage, and the local girls added 14 more in the final period of play to win the game, 56-35.

Jayvees defeat Bees

The jayvee Raiders traveled to Brookville Thursday and defeated the Bees 14-0 for their fifth win of this season.

Appomattox took the opening kickoff and drove steadily downfield and eventually scored on a pass from quarterback Paul Johnson, his eighth scoring pass of the season. Slotback Ricky Turner caught the pass to give the Raiders a 6-0 lead., which held through the first half.

The Raider defense held tough in the first half, refusing Brookville's offense a single first down.

The third quarter was all defense, as both teams were forced to punt often and neither could muster a scoring threat.

In the fourth quarter, the Raiders opened up their offense, going more to the aerial attack. Early in the quarter, the Raiders put a drive together with key pass receptions by Kevin Kendrick, Ricky Turner, Lonnie Hamlett, and occasional rushes by Ronnie Kelso and Kinkle Robinson.

Having moved the ball to the four-yard line with second down, Ricky Turner scored on a misdirection play to give the Raiders their final touchdown and a 12-0 lead. On the extra-point play, Johnson hit split end Lonnie Hamlett on a pass play to make the final score 14-0. The win left the Raiders with a 5-1 record headed iito this week's game against Jefferson Forest, Thursday at 6 p.m. in Appomattox.

"The Forest jayvees will be a major test for the Raiders," according to Coach Howard Clabough. "In the last two games, they have scored 80 points offensively."
